

AUCTION Terms: Cattle will be available for viewing before the sale. At Noon the cattle will be auctioned in sale order. Each lot will be offered at base price (base price set by each group). If more than one person is interested in the lot the high bidder can make a choice from the lot or the entire lot (2 head). If high bidder selects a portion of the group, then the bidding will be opened back up for the remaining cattle in the lot . Auctioneer has the right to settle any dispute. There will be bidding in person, by conference line and some producers have left orders and sale management will be bidding on their behalf.

J. S. Collins AL Auctioneer License 501